U.S. Congressman Bob Good, our Speaker

Serving Virginia's Fifth Congressional District

Congressman Bob Good has represented Virginia's Fifth Congressional District in the United States Congress since January 2021. He is a member of the House Freedom Caucus and has been named to the Budget Committee and the Education and the Workforce Committee where he is Chairman of the Health, Environment, Labor and Pensions Subcommittee. Prior to his election to Congress, he served one term on the Campbell County Board of Supervisors from 2015 to 2019. Professionally, Bob worked as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Development at Liberty University for 15 years, following a 17-year career with CitiFinancial. Good attended Liberty University, where he was a member of the wrestling team and earned a Bachelor of Science in finance and a Master of Business Administration. Bob lives in Campbell County with Tracey, his wife of 34 years. They are the proud parents of three adult children: Patrick, Sydney, and Conner.
