

June Speakers' Forum

Thursday, June 26, 2025; 11:30am – 2:00pm

Speaker: John Reid

Conservative Candidate for Lt. Governor of Virginia

For the last 8 years John Reid was the popular, award-winning host of one of America's longest running morning shows on NewsRadio WRVA in Richmond. He is the founder and chairman of the Virginia Council and in that role leads a team of educators and activists who are committed to preserving Virginia's cultural heritage and best traditions. He also speaks across the Commonwealth and United States to audiences offering analysis of global politics and advocating for smart, proven conservative public policy and effective communications messages that challenge stereotypes and forge new solutions to old problems.

Previously Reid served as the Director of Editorial Communications for the U.S Chamber of Commerce and was Senate Communications Director for U.S. Senator George Allen of Virginia during the Senator's time on the Foreign Relations Committee. He was also elected and served as the President of the bi-partisan U.S. Senate Press Secretaries Association.

In addition, Reid has the distinction of having served as one of the last interns/press assistants to President Ronald Reagan in his Los Angeles Office following his presidency.
